Sink Installation video

The present invention is directed to a system comprising a rimless stainless steel sink that is structured and configured to be integrated into granite, quartz, porcelain, marble, or any solid surface.

The beauty and sleek elegance of the seamless design offer both aesthetic appeal and improved hygiene to any kitchen.

It's all about the rimless edge.
The edge of the TopZero Sink sits flush with the top of your countertop, rather than underneath it.

TopZero seamlessly eliminates the troublesome gap between the countertop and the sink, creating one less area to constantly maintain and keep clean in the kitchen

CORSICA TZ RS609

A high-quality kitchen scene featuring a stainless steel sink, a marble countertop, and a wooden cutting board with vegetables. The sink is a single-basin model with a modern, minimalist design. The countertop is made of light-colored marble with a subtle veining pattern. A wooden cutting board with a handle is placed on the countertop, holding a red tomato, a cucumber, and several slices of cucumber. In the background, a dining table with a dark tablecloth and a glass of water is visible.

- StonChrome® Sink is a hybrid farmhouse sink that combines a stainless steel basin with a porcelain shell.
- Stainless Steel Basin: Unlike traditional fireclay farmhouse sinks, the stainless steel basin of StonChrome® is impact-absorbent, resistant to chipping and discoloration, and requires minimal maintenance.
- Latest Trend: Represents the latest evolution in farmhouse sink design.
